APRIL OUTREACH (All Month)

Founded in 2010 by Chef José Andrés, World Central Kitchen (WCK) is a nonprofit organization that is first to the frontlines providing fresh meals in response to crises, while working to build resilient food systems with locally led solutions.

WCK is shipping 400 tons of food to Gaza to help stave off the predicted famine in that war torn region. Please donate to the World Central Kitchen during the month of April.

Love's Redeeming Work is Done

Music: Robert Lehman (b. 1960)
Text: Charles Wesley (1707-1788)

Love's redeeming work is done;
Fought the fight, the battle won;
Death in vain forbids his rise;
Christ has opened paradise.

Lives again our glorious King;
Where, O death, is now thy sting?
Once he died, our souls to save;
Where thy victory, O grave?.

Soar we now where Christ has led,
Following our exalted Head;
Made like him, like him we rise;
Ours the cross, the grave, the skies.

Robert W. Lehman, American conductor, organist, harpsichordist and composer, holds a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree in organ performance with honors from Carnegie-Mellon University, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, a Master of Music degree in church music from Westminster Choir College, Princeton, New Jersey, and earned his Doctorate from the Graduate Theological Foundation of South Bend, Indiana. He has served on the staff of several distinguished churches, including the Washington National Cathedral, the Princeton University Chapel, and St. Bartholomew's Episcopal Church, New York City.

He joined the staff of the Church of St. Michael & St. George in St. Louis in 2008 and divides his time between Missouri, Connecticut, and New York with his wife and children. His compositions are published by several American publishers and have been recorded by leading choirs around the globe. His work is heard regularly over NPR and the BBC and he has been the recipient of many awards and honors.
